DOURO RIVER
PORTO, PORTUGAL

PORTO | As its name seems to imply, Porto is a port city, clinging to the rocks carved by the river Douro. Port wine and Portugal itself were named after it. Discover both the cosmopolitan and old-world ambiance of Portugal's "second city", now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. See the remains of ancient city walls and the Oporto Cathedral, one of the oldest surviving structures there. Your tour includes a visit to the Torre dos Clérigos, a six-floor tower that rises 250 feet above the city. Climb 225 steps to the belfry for a breathtaking view of Porto and the Douro River. Finally, board a river boat for a short cruise through the Douro River Valley, famous for its steep-terraced vineyards.

LISBON | Experience Old World atmosphere as you make your way through the labyrinth of winding streets in Lisbon's Alfama district. Discover the hidden balconies, archways, terraces and courtyards of this hillside medieval quarter as you explore Lisbon's former centre of Moorish aristocracy. See where Portugal's early kings resided at the Castelo de São Jorge, built to overlook the city and Tagus River. Recall the Age of Discovery at the Monument to Discoveries and the Belém Tower. It was from here that many adventure-seeking navigators including Bartolomeu Dias set sail.

ALGARVE | Thanks to its Mediterranean climate and nearly 100 miles of south-facing coastline, the Algarve region ranks as a popular travelling destination. You will take a tour of Cabo San Vicente – a nature lover's paradise. In Neolithic times, it was considered a sacred ground. The Romans thought of it as a magical place where the sunset was much larger than anywhere else. The belief was that the sun sank here hissing into the ocean, marking the edge of the world. Make sure you stop to see the lighthouse, which overlooks one of the world's busiest waterways.

Travel changes lives

An incredible journey lasts a lifetime in the many stories and pictures you bring home. Get ready for a trip that will change your life and teach you to experience the world around you with more independence, confidence and knowledge.

ALL OF OUR ITINERARIES ARE FUN AND EDUCATIONAL. Visit sites that amaze you and take part in activities that deepen your understanding of what you're learning in school.
